Love....

So much has happened
in the last year, and for the first time in my life, it has been good. You are the best thing that has ever happened to me and I think I will end up
spending the rest of my life being in awe
that you love me so.
My love for you
grows with every breath I take, and not long now, I'll be able to whisper that into your ear every night.
I love you John, and
although I make some pretty stupid mistakes
at times, never ever
doubt that I do love
you. Know that my heart is yours
completely. I love you
with all that I am.

Beyond forever,
Angel
